THE JUNIOR ROTC INSTRUCTOR’S COM-PENSATION

AUTHORITY: 10 U.S.C. 2031, as amended.

SOURCE: 47 FR 36636, Aug. 23, 1982, unless otherwise noted.

§ 111.1 Reissuance and purpose.

This part is reissued to update and clarify policies for the organization and administration of the Reserve Officers’ Training Corps (ROTC) program in all secondary schools (hereafter called Junior ROTC), as a result of amendments to title 10 U.S.C. section 2031. Amendments include new viability standards for Junior ROTC units, in accordance with section 602 of the Defense Appropriation Act, Fiscal Year (FY) 1981, and the extension of the authority for section 607 in the Defense Authorization Bill, FY 1982.

§ 111.2 Applicability and scope.

(a) This part applies to the Office of the Secretary of Defense and the Military Departments. The term “Military Service,” as used herein, refers to the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marine Corps.

(b) Its provisions include those institutions with established Junior ROTC units and encompass the operation and administration of the Junior ROTC program worldwide at both public and private institutions.

§ 111.3 Definitions.

(a) Active duty pay and allowances. For purposes of calculating the Junior ROTC instructor’s pay, active duty pay and allowances shall be limited to basic pay, basic allowance for quarters, allowance for variable housing (VHA), allowance for uniforms (enlisted only), and basic allowance for subsistence, which the individual would receive if called to active duty.

(b) High schools. Public and private secondary educational institutions that do not fall under the definition for military junior colleges and military institute schools.

(c) Junior ROTC. All ROTC programs conducted at the secondary level of education.

(d) Junior ROTC unit. An organized group of Junior ROTC students and faculty at one secondary school.

(e) Military institute schools. Military schools at the secondary level of instruction that:

(1) Require a 4-year course in military training.

(2) Organize their military students as a Corps of Cadets under constantly maintained military discipline.

(3) Require all members of the Corps, including those members enrolled in military training, to be in appropriate uniform when on campus.

(4) Have as their objectives the development of the student’s character through military training, the regulation of the student’s conduct in accordance with the principles of military discipline, and the meeting of military standards similar to those maintained at Military Service academies.

(f) Military junior colleges. Schools that provide high school and college instruction but do not confer baccalaureate degrees. Junior ROTC units established at these schools meet all other requirements of military college institutions, as defined in 32 CFR part 110, and accept and maintain a specially designated program of instruction prescribed by the Military Department concerned.

(g) Multiple Junior ROTC unit. Any group of units organized and sponsored under one school system in which the Junior ROTC program is conducted concurrently in more than one school.

§ 111.4 Policy.

It is the policy of the Department of Defense to sponsor and fund the Junior ROTC program to provide an opportunity for secondary school students to learn the basic elements and requirements for national security and their
